Also on 03/10/2017, the U.S. Court of International Trade issued an order dissolving the preliminary injunction to which message number 7055308 dated 02/24/2017 refers. This injunction enjoined liquidation of entries which are subject to the antidumping duty order on wooden bedroom furniture from the PRC for the period 01/01/2015 through 12/31/2015 exported by Shanghai Jian Pu Import & Export Co., Ltd. or Nantong Wangzhuang Furniture Co., Ltd.

(A-570-890-000), and entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the period 01/01/2015 through 12/31/2015, assess an antidumping duty liability equal to 216.01 percent of the entered value.

3. These instructions constitute notice of the lifting of suspension of liquidation of entries of subject merchandise covered by paragraph 2. Accordingly, notice of the lifting of suspension occurred on the message date of these instructions. Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of wooden bedroom furniture from the PRC you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current rates.

5. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties is required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

6. Upon assessment of antidumping duties, CBP shall require that the importer provide a reimbursement statement, as described in section 351.402(f)(2) of Commerce's regulations. The importer should provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation of the entry. If the importer certifies that it has an agreement with the producer, seller, or exporter, to be reimbursed antidumping duties, CBP shall double the antidumping duties in accordance with the above-referenced regulation. Additionally, if the importer does not provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation, reimbursement shall be presumed and CBP shall double the antidumping duties due. If an importer timely files a protest challenging the presumption of reimbursement and doubling of duties, consistent with CBP's protest process, CBP may accept the reimbursement statement filed with the protest to rebut the presumption of reimbursement.
